*Factors in the BIC Top 100 ranking are weighted on an average of six variables. Those variables include: (1) Assets under management; (2) trailing-12 production; (3) % change in AUM from previous year; (4) % change in trailing-12; (5) amount of fee-based business; and (6) ratio of production-per-AUM. Advisers were reviewed and re-ranked based solely on assets-under-management. For the most tenured advisors list, advisors ranked in the BIC Top 100 were re-ranked based on their years in the industry. While job tenure wasn't one of the factors in the BIC Top 100 Advisors ranking it was an extra stat listed in each adviser's biography. These rankings may not be representative of any one client's experience, and are not indicative of future investment performance. Neither Raymond James nor any of its Financial Advisors paid a fee in exchange for these awards/ratings. BIC is not affiliated with Raymond James.
