ADDISON AVENUE'S JOHN MURPHY NAMED ONE OF NATION'S TOP ADVISORS UNDER 40

Andover, Mass. – March 19, 2014 – John Murphy has been named as one of REP. magazine and WealthManagement.com's Top Next Gen Advisors Under 40. Murphy is a Raymond James financial advisor located at Addison Avenue Investment Services in Andover, Mass., and is affiliated with the Financial Institutions Division of Raymond James Financial Services, Inc., member FINRA/SIPC. Addison Avenue Investment Services is the investment services program of First Tech Federal Credit Union, the nation's leading credit union serving employees and family members of America's technology sector.

"I'm honored to be included on this list as I believe it is representative of the many close relationships I have developed with my clients over the years and the trust they place in me," said Murphy.

Advisors on the list are ranked exclusively by assets under management and are nominated by their representative firms. Murphy, ranked 64th on the list, joins 20 other financial advisors affiliated with Raymond James on this prestigious list, compiled by REP. magazine and WealthManagement.com.

"We are honored to count John Murphy as one of the top advisors under 40," said Scott Curtis, president of Raymond James Financial Services. "The fact that John was among 21 Raymond James advisors on this list of 70 high performers from across the country reflects their client-first focus, professionalism, expertise, and the benefits of affiliation with our firm – where a full spectrum of resources and tools are focused on facilitating their success as our clients. We're proud of their affiliation and partnership with Raymond James."
