FIRST TECH FEDERAL CREDIT UNION OPENS NEW BRANCH IN SAMMAMISH, WASH.

New Branch Expands First Tech's Greater Seattle Presence with Seventh Branch Location

(SAMMAMISH, Wash.) – October 16, 2017 – First Tech Federal Credit Union will open a new branch today in Sammamish, Wash. Located at 22620 SE 4th Street, the full-service branch is First Tech's seventh branch location in the greater Seattle area.

Rooted in the Pacific Northwest's technology community since 1952, First Tech proudly serves employees of innovative Washington companies such as Amazon and Microsoft, among many others. With a growing member base, First Tech's new Sammamish branch brings another location to serve its current and future members that live and work in the area.

"First Tech is committed to helping its members in the tech and design industries. We want to ensure they have nothing on their mind besides innovating the next-best-things in the world. To do that, they need financial expertise to guide them along that journey. Our newest retail location in Sammamish is going to be a place within the community that fosters those experiences," said Alex de la Cruz, Senior Vice President of Retail at First Tech.

Featuring First Tech's branch of the future design, the new Sammamish location has an open layout much like a modern day living room, eliminating the traditional teller row and creating a more inviting space for members where they can manage their finances in a timely manner.
