ADDISON AVENUE REPRESENTATIVES EARN TOP DISTINCTIONS WITHIN RAYMOND JAMES FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS DIVISION

Team members named to the 2016 Director's Council, RJFS Chairman's Council, FID Leaders Council and RJFS Executive Council

Rocklin, Calif. – November 16, 2015 – Seventeen Financial Advisors from Addison Avenue Investment Services have earned membership for 2016 in the Chairman's Council, Leaders Council and Executive Council of the Financial Institutions Division for Raymond James Financial Services, Inc.*

As President and CEO, Scott Jenner led the advisors at Addison Avenue Investment Services to more than $20 million in branch production and has been recognized with membership in the 2016 FID Director's Council. The council is comprised of program managers from the Financial Institution Division's top ten producing financial institutions.

Financial Advisor Michael Lipkins from Addison Avenue's Palo Alto location is one of 11 FID-affiliated advisors to achieve RJFS Chairman's Council status, while Brett Everhart, Laura Pedroncelli, and Will Tychsen qualified for membership in the FID Leaders Council. The RJFS Executive Council includes 13 Financial Advisors at Addison Avenue, including Jeff Alejandro, Ted Halseth, Michael Cooney, Endry Surjanto, Kimberlee Bouska, David Wood, Michelle Hylton, Bert Browen, Kathy Wills, Sage Kendall, Juan Rojas, John Murphy, and Kristina Meyers.

Council honors are bestowed on those Financial Advisors who have demonstrated an unparalleled commitment to personal service and professional integrity. "We are extremely proud of our advisors," said Jenner. "It is an impressive achievement to be honored and we congratulate them on their prestigious recognition."

*Council membership is based on prior fiscal year production and re-qualification is required annually.
