If the actual Due Date falls on a non-Business Day, you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is at least one (1) Business Day before the actual Due Date. Scheduled Payment Dates must be prior to any late date or grace period.

The Service Guarantee

Due to circumstances beyond the control of First Tech or its Service provider, particularly delays in handling and posting payments by Billers or financial institutions, some transactions may take longer to be credited to your account. First Tech will bear responsibility for any late payment related charges up to $50.00 should a payment post after its Due Date as long as the payment was scheduled in accordance with the guidelines described under “Payment Scheduling” in this Agreement.

Payment Authorization and Payment Remittance

By providing First Tech with names, account information, and access information of Billers to whom you wish to direct payments, you authorize First Tech and its Service provider to follow the Payment Instructions that it receives through a Biller’s payment system. In order to process payments more efficiently and effectively, payment data or data formats may be edited or altered in accordance with Biller directives.

When Payment Instructions are received by First Tech, you authorize First Tech and its Service provider to debit your Payment Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close as reasonably possible to the Scheduled Payment Date designated by you or the Biller’s payment system. You also authorize First Tech to credit your Payment Account for payments returned to First Tech or its Service provider by the United States Postal Service or Biller, or payments remitted to you on behalf of another authorized user of the Service.

First Tech will use its best efforts to make all your payments properly. However, First Tech shall incur no liability and any Service Guarantee shall be void if the Service is unable to complete any payments initiated by you because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

1. If, through no fault of First Tech, your Payment Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account on the date the payment posts a debit to your Payment Account;
2. The payment processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised about the malfunction before you execute the transaction;
3. You have not provided the correct Payment Account information, or the correct name, address, phone number, or account information for the Biller; and/or

Provided none of the foregoing exceptions are applicable, if the Service causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Payment Account or causes funds from your Payment Account to be directed to a Biller which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, First Tech shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Payment Account, and for directing to the proper Biller any previously misdirected transactions, and, if applicable, for any late payment related charges.

Payment Methods

Once the Service has begun processing a payment it cannot be cancelled or edited, therefore a stop payment request must be submitted.

Stop Payment Requests
The ability to process a stop payment request for a payment scheduled to be made through the Service will depend on the payment method and whether or not a check has cleared. First Tech may also not have a reasonable opportunity to act on any stop payment request after a payment has been processed. If you desire to stop any payment that has already been processed, you must contact customer service. Although, First Tech will make every effort to accommodate your request, First Tech will have no liability for failing to do so. First Tech may also require you to present your request in writing within fourteen (14) days. The charge for each stop payment request will be the current charge for such service as set out in the applicable fee schedule.

Payments to Billers outside of the United States or its territories are prohibited through the Service.
